FOREWORD BY PRINCESS IKE

Impact officer, Abuja Global Shapers (July 2021 - June 2022)

I write to you with great excitement, deep gratitude, and sincere appreciation for what has been achieved by the Abuja Global Shapers hub over the last 12 months under the 2021/2022 curatorship.

We can admit that the COVID-19 pandemic tested and challenged us in many ways, but it has also proven our collective perseverance in the face of profound adversity.

This report covers key projects/events and activities carried out within the 2021/2022 hub year and worthy of mention is the design and implementation of the hub's first engagement and accountability tracker for active shapers and the hub's first Alumni transition database to mention a few. We hope these practices are sustained going forward.

Major appreciation to the Curator - Umar Naveed Abdulmalik and the Deputy Curator - Akumishi Ayenajeh for their support and commitment to genuine impact.

As the 2021/2022 impact office comes to an end, it is paramount to unreservedly thank every project and hub operation lead and co-lead of the Abuja Global Shapers hub who have given their time, and talent selflessly to lead the various projects across our impact areas of the Global Shapers Community. Even more importantly is a heartfelt appreciation to every active shaper and Alumni of the hub who have supported the hub ceaselessly in each of our projects and activities.

Thank you for a year of shaping and life-changing impact. This has been an honour!

ELECTIONS

HUB ELECTIONS (FEBRUARY 2022)

Hub Elections are an important part of the Abuja Hub's Charter.

Each year the Hub holds a democratic election in February to vote in a Curator and a Deputy Curator for the upcoming hub year.

This year the Hub saw the likes of 2 candidates; Princess Ike and Elmer Aluge (who later stepped down due to personal reasons) for the position of Curator and 1 candidate; Jesse Dan-Yusuf for the position of Deputy Curator. Princess Ike was voted in as Curator elect, while Jesse Dan Yusuf was voted in as Deputy Curator elect for the 2022/2023 hub year.

CURATORSHIP HANDOVER CEREMONY

On the 25th of June 2022, the 2021/2022 Curatorship (Umar Abdulmalik and Akumishi Ayenajeh) handed over the mantle of the hub's leadership to the 2022/2023 Curatorship (Princess Ike and Jesse Dan Yusuf).

ENGAGEMENT AND ACCOUNTABILITY

INTRODUCTION

Shaper engagement represents the degree to which a shaper is personally aligned with the aims, objectives and values of the hub as it directly impacts on the hub's ability to survive and flourish. It is therefore important for the hub to take a more informed, robust and structured approach to ensure that shaper engagement activity is truly optimised.

OBJECTIVES

- To increase the vitality of the hub.
- To improve overall engagement of all active shapers.
- To give objective reviews of shapers based on standard metrics which will be useful for fairly evaluating for rewards.
- To provide information and justification for termination of membership

ENGAGEMENT AND ACCOUNTABILITY INDICATORS

- Attendance to hub meetings: 30% will be allocated for this and will only be gotten from the minutes of meetings or the secretariat.
  - Hub dues: 40% will be allocated for this and will be gotten from the finance team of the hub quarterly or as convenient.
  - Attendance to projects and events: 30% will be allocated for this. (Shapers must attend at least one of the two a month to claim points) and for this, attendance shall be collected and documented.

SHAPER OF THE QUARTER

Shaper of the Quarter and year was introduced to the Hub in the year 2021/2022 to appreciate the hard-work, dedication and commitment of a well-performing and deserving Shaper for the period of 3 months.

The Shaper of the Quarter is selected on the basis of an engagement and accountability tracker which includes three main parameters for assessment; payment of hub dues, attendance to hub meetings and attendance to projects and events with points allocated for each parameter.

There was no Shaper of the year. This is due to the fact that the evaluation plan rolled out in July 2021 states that only those in the shaper of the quarter category who have however scored an average of 80% a year (from quarter 1-4) would be eligible for this reward.

To this effect, the shaper of the year bench mark going forward has been reduced to 75%.
